

275 - Triple Helix DNA

by Savannah Nobel

10/16/ 2022

Greetings!

Today we are talking about the Triple Helix. This is what they call their product. They have actually changed the genes in the human body so that they have added a third strand to the DNA strand and what that means for us, that we are looking at now!

A patent from 2014 from this company / FPO.

The background is that if they want to introduce unmodified stuff into a cell, then there is an immediate immune response from the body, releasing certain substances in the body, which ultimately leads to cell death. Here they formulate their intention, to be able to introduce something foreign into a cell, that not only should be added, but is to be further copied and further produced in exactly the same way.

For that they want to develop compositions, that deliver specific charges into the cell without activating the immune system. This takes place with:

- Nanoparticles
 - Lipids, Lipoplexes, Liposomes,
 - Polymers, Carbon Hydrates, Sugars
 - Fibrin Gel, Fibrin Hydro Gel, Fibrin Glue
(also: tissue adhesives)
 - Fibrin Sealants
 - Lipids (Fat Nanoparticles)
- or compounds from all of these.

The stability of these gene-modified RNA molecules can be enhanced by Albumin. Did you know, that comes from the cow!

The step of transporting the modified RNA into the cell, so that the cell adopts the foreign program, can and should be repeated more often. You should then repeat this 2, 3, 4, 5 or even more times so that this thing remains stable, or if it has collapsed, a new one is built.

Carbon nanotubes can be filled with gene-modified material, the release of which is initiated by a varying or pulsating magnetic field or by an electric field.

There is a possibility that these modified molecules or RNA is a self-replicating RNA. There is a possibility that these self-replicating RNA's can intentionally trigger a immune response. In another possibility, the self-replicating RNA, just like Virion, can be structured similar particles. And notice! - They speak of "VIRION"! Not once does the word „Virus" appears in the 2014 patent of the company FPO. They know that there is no virus, they always say "VIRION". And a "VIRION" is defined as: "...the pieces or debris of a dead cell". (And here is now referred to my video's of the last year: No. 170, 71, 72 and No. 176, 177. There I have discussed the self-reproducing RNA's and the Virion's) and my statements are absolutely confirmed with this patent. But further...

So what they were trying to do was to smuggle in a foreign gene-modified molecule into the body's cells, that is then not only to be absorbed, but can reproduce itself further there!

A few fundamental views are so interesting here!
What does the therm "animal" mean to them?

- That is first of all every member in the kingdom of the animals
- Sometimes applies the term "animal" to humans at every stage be development.
- Sometimes for "non-human animals" at some stage
- Sometimes an "animal" is also considered to be a genetically modified animal, a genetically engineered animal, or a clone

Well, well! - here they define the human being as an "animal"! But we will see later what that means. We should also note, that they do not see themselves as scientists, not as researchers and not as physicians. But rather, they see themselves as Artists or Art-Craftsman. And they are not doing science, research or medicine either. NO! They see their work as art. And here are just a few examples of them. But here is something important from this patent 2014 and this point is the most important, They have hidden it somewhere in the middle of the patent! These modified RNAs can contain other active substances, i.e. different RNA TYPES, which create a triple helix. However, this is not about the rule of 3, but about something completely different!

We are created with a double Helix. Just as we have two eyes, two legs, two arms, all in pairs and in our DNA and "PAPA and MAMA" have programmed the source code of life in the beginning. And now they come along and want to change that! What is striking about this Triplex propaganda is the way how they bring it into the public consciousness and that they do quite differently than usual. In their world (inverted world) it is usual and necessary that you always present every deviant wickedness as something good, always plausibilize it well.

An example to plausibilization and distraction:

- They say how to turn on and off the human genes, how to shoot them down and kill them, that's why we have to learn, because, we want to shoot down the cancer cells and that's something good. -

But we've been hearing that drivel for over 30 years now.

- They enter the cell, one cut in the gene and the cancer is gone! -

That's what they do, isn't it? Now it's about time that they deliver! There is still far too much suffering! But nothing happens! They do not deliver, that is everything only pretext! There make a completely different propaganda than otherwise. with their so called „Triplex Technology“. Somehow they can't anything plausibilize anymore. What does a person need a third strand for? You shouldn't even ask that in the first place. And that's why it is presented in such a way, as if it would be something quite normal!

Namely in this way:

- Yes, the triplex forms then, when that and the molecule is added. -

But they do not tell us how this is added! They give us to understand, as if it comes there by itself, but it is not like that! The molecule does not enter the cell by itself to the gene, which is naturally not possible, because the immune system kicks in and kicks this foreign intruder immediately out from the system. So how this foreign intruder gets in there and can stay, that they pack again behind their most complicated terminology, because they have noticed, that this nobody reads anyway (Patent 2014/FPO), only they, the false artists of the inverted world. And so that you don't ask about purpose and function of this malicious gene perversion, this is presented so plausibly, as if this artificially added strand would be completely normal. What this third strand consists of and what that actually is, that of course they won't tell you that anyway. That's where you really have to read into it (patent) and then it is still hard to find what that strand consists of. But that is exactly the point!

This third DNA strand consists of purine (P urine). And yes, that exactly is it. Purine, uric acid and everything that goes with it is produced by the body itself. Your own genes are made up of the purine and your body makes itself, there is nothing scary about that at all. It gets a little spooky for the body when you eat things that have a lot of purine in them, namely all animal products. The body does not absorb this animal purine, it is excreted immediately when it comes, it is not processed any further. Now, if you eat too much of it, well there are animals that have more purine, some have less. If there is too much purine, the body can no longer get on, deposits it somewhere and then there are certain disease patterns.

So again: Your genes are built from the purine that your body makes itself. An animal purine, which is ingested with animal food, is quite different from the human one. The body cannot use it at all and will eliminate it as quickly as possible. Like everything else foreign! Such an immune system is a great thing, but only we think so! The most important and first step of the enemies of man was always to destroy his defenses! That means, to destroy our immune system. Not only the physical, but also the mental and spiritual immune system, which is our logic and our ability to the realization is. To recognize what is good and what is bad, for you and for all people. This ability to recognize what is good and what is bad for you, is destroyed by the indoctrination of the upside-down world. And the destruction of the physical immune system follows from this. Your physical immune system cannot be destroyed as long as your logic is intact, because mind is above matter. Always! Only the upside down world it wants to tell you something different.

Their goal is not the destruction of your body, but it goes to them always about the destruction of the soul! Because if your body dies, you'll come back, it doesn't matter! It's all happening very quickly these days, you can be back here very quickly if you want to be. And they know much better about this than we do. And they can invent as many wars or diseases as they want, it helps them nothing. And if they still produce so much poverty, hunger and misery in the world, they have nothing at all from it, if they destroy the body. No matter how they killed the person and no matter how many times, then he is back again and can start from scratch. It sounds very funny now, but it's really absolutely serious!

And even if he has the greatest pleasure in the pain and suffering of man, that is not enough for the evil, that's why he hasn't won yet! They want to be the RULER over life and death and they want eternal death for man, because: We are the candidates for eternal life! And it brings nothing at all, if the entire extent of the vaccine damage were to somehow become known now. What happens to the body of the stabbed, they don't care at all, or how many die, they are not interested in that. Or if now nobody would die at all from their "Jab", that wouldn't matter to them either. Because to kill the people with the „Jab“, that is not at all their goal. That would go differently much easier. And also in the direction of this drastic population reduction, as it is always said, because they probably want to have the earth for themselves - that is also not their goal, because as said - they're all coming back. For how many hundreds or thousands of years have the evil ones tried this now? These people keep coming back! You just can't get rid of them. They are also not interested in so-called transhumanism, where protagonists talk about the programming of the brain, how people are controlled and everything is controlled. But by the fact that they say it publicly you also realize that is only propaganda, namely distraction from their actual goal! Since when do they allow one of their „Hansel's“ to reveal his true goals in an interview on the internet? Never before! They already tell something about their plans, in the sense, which actions they plan next. But never they say even one word about their motives! Zero, nothing!

Because if you know the motive, then you could prevent it!

Not by force, but with your knowledge! I don't mean for someone else, but for you. They won't get you if you know their motive. But nobody knows that and that is the problem. Everyone falls for the propaganda! And then they put some "Hansel" in front of the camera who then boasts:

„The People will be programmed by us and there will be no more free will."

And already everyone is shouting: "That is the Anti... - Anti..., that's he!"

That they want to take the free will given by God from the people away is also not their true motive! And that must become clear to everyone now! They don't tell you their real motive and it's just not population reduction and the murder of so - and so many. This is also not the zombification, also not the borgification. This is all a big distraction!

And when once again a system physician comes along and has again discovered a new ingredient of the "smurfing":

- "Oh, today it's graphene! - Tomorrow it's "snake venom!" -

And that's pure distraction, so you'll never see their motive, because as soon as you have recognized this, they have lost! And how that works we will now find out. What and whom you have have stood up to, you will have understood by the end of the video.

They had announced, EVERYONE should be "jabed“, three times and they have said from the beginning quite clearly what they are doing, namely:

"You are injected with an RNA that enters your cells to provoke a response."

And no one asked: "What kind of reaction is that, what's in there?"

And no one asked either: "What reaction is supposed to happen? What exactly?"

The answer should have been:

"The RNA is a single-stranded DNA from an animal, which animal, we are certainly not telling you that. And the reaction to this RNA will be, that the animal absorbed and continues to be produced. And we have already applied for the patents since 2014“.

They already say exactly what they are doing:

„Yes, you get an RNA shot and then there's a reaction." And this unreliable explanation, that was enough for people! And while they have been permanently hypnotized with shock, fear and constant repetition, there has also been a Triple Temptation.

At the beginning it was said: "Accept the "Jab" and you are protected".

The second was: "You protect the others!

And with this as „jabed“ you are the good one and you can also rise above the one, who does not, because that's the "bad guy."

And the third temptation was: "Then you belong to us, to the good guys."

You have resisted three times! You escaped them three times, that's like this three times seduction attempt with Isa. And when he said "No" three times, the EVIL had to go away. And that's exactly how it is with us.

Now to the third DNA strand:

First:

As already said, this third strand is made of "purine", which is not your own purine! (1mg uric acid = 0.42 mg purine). This is a foreign purine. Where does it comes from? We can take it for granted, that this purine comes from an animal. What kind of animal this fake artists prefer, should be clear to all of us. But that these purine must come from an animal, that is certain, because it is not the own purine. Otherwise, they would have to first remove the genes from every single person treated and then add them back. And each „jabed“ extra. In fact, it is a purine from the animal for everyone. This molecule from the cow is only for stabilization, it is not „The Gene" of the animal.

Second:

The human body has 72,000 different genomes in every single strand of its DNA. That makes a total of 144,000 different genomes. If they now add a third strand, that is, plus 72,000, in this way, the one „jabed“ has then 216,000 genomes.

Thirdly:

This number, I'll write it down here for a moment, "666," this number used to be understood quite differently, and it was calculated like this:

600x60x6 results in 216,000

Therefore:

144,000 + 72,000 (the extra strand of DNA) = 216,000

(from the Bible)

"... the number of the beast"

"... because it is a humans number".

"... and his number is "666"

The human gen inflicted animal purine increased the number to 216,000. Now their body consists to one third from animal genes, as programmed and continue permanently to reproduce. This means their number remains and does not decrease. But is this "BEING" even still a human being? As we saw in the introduction, no! Their patent, thus practically the contract, designates this "BEING" as animal.

There are many misunderstandings about this number of the animal, because always all interpret their own conceptions into it and take it not literally. Nowhere in the patent does it say the "beast" is the evil one. It also doesn't say anywhere, that this animal would be the „Anti...", you know already „the Anti- Anti- Type..." there. And it also doesn't say anywhere that the „Anti-Type" is a human being, it doesn't say that anywhere. It says clearly here:

„... the number of the animal“. > = ANIMAL!!! It is an animal!

Do you see the confusion here? It is written here very clearly.

And here, we have the number of the sealed, that is those untouched by the „Jab“

... 144,000

... His name on their foreheads

... they are virgin

But nowhere does it say that there 144,000 people and nowhere does it say, that would be the number of survivors - but that would be a bit few. This number has always meant that people have 144,000 genes, inscribed by "PAPA and MAMA" as a double helix.

With the third DNA strand, DNA from an animal, this "BEING" is no longer a human being. It is no longer what "PAPA" wrote into it. "PAPA" redeems only those with 144,000 genes, just as "He" wrote them into it. The „jabed“ are no longer people, in fact, no longer and the very worst of it is, they cannot be redeemed now. And besides they can never be born again on earth. He cannot be reborn! They have "PAPA and MAMA" overwritten their spiritual program in itself. They have it overwritten.

They have changed the source code of the human species and destroyed the divine code in man! They can never come back and no tea or perfume or any affirmation will help. The „jabed“ ones consist of one third animal DNA. And what animal do you think have the fake artists put in there? Understand what that means! They can never be born here again. They can no longer be redeemed. They can't go back to "PAPA and MAMA" again! And that was the motive of the whole gene project! The motive for the „Jab" was, to turn the human being into an "animal“, by introducing animal genes into humans. By tricking the human immune system into accepting the animal genes, allowing them to remain there and then reproduce. Now you understand, against whom you have been fighting all this time. Who you actually resisted.

This, my speech is, of course, only for the "unjabed“ ones.

And I bow to ALL who have managed to preserve their 144,000 genes. All the love and be proud of yourself! Understand what you have achieved. You can be proud. And understand, you go as a winner in what is coming now. You've already won! No matter what, you've already won.

Understand against "WHO" you have won. Against "WHO" and "WHAT".

All love.

And I am so proud of each of you one hundred and forty-four thousand!
